

The BILTMORE
NEW YORK

America's Latest and Most Refined, and New York's Centermost Hotel

Only hotel occupying an entire city block, Vanderbilt and Madison Avenues, 43d and 44th Streets, adjoining and connected with the Grand Central Terminal, of New York Central Lines and New York, New Haven & Hartford R. R.

1000 ROOMS OPEN TO OUTSIDE AIR
950 WITH BATH
ROOM RATES FROM $2.50 PER DAY

Write for illustrated folder and map of New York

GUSTAV BAUMANN
President
JOHN M. BOWMAN
Vice-President

TO SHOW SCORE AT KEITH'S.

Electric Board Will Show Returns at Conclusion of Program.

An innovation will be made, commencing today, in the machine at the B. F. Keith Theater. The Keith electrical scoreboard will be permanently installed, and as an added attraction at every matinee, including Sunday, it will give graphic and accurate returns showing the games played every day by the penman-winning Nationals. This board is regarded by "fans" as one of the best of the many, and the crowded house last Sunday, when it was first installed, evidenced that it meets the wants of the "fans."

It will be presented at the conclusion of the vaudeville bill, and will be operated as late as 6 p. m. If the same lasts so late, the first game shown today will be between the Nationals and the White Sox in the Windy City, with Walter Johnson pitching for the Nationals. The regular prices of admission will not be increased.

DON'T FAIL TO VISIT
THE OLD BRITISH
Convict Ship
"Success"

THE OLDEST AND MOST HISTORICAL SHIP IN THE WORLD.
On board are hundreds of ancient and interesting exhibits.
Now Open to the Public Daily, 10 A. M. to 10 P. M.
Seventh St. Wharf, Wash.

Checking Accounts

Our facilities for serving you by receiving deposits subject to check are unexcelled.

This large, safe bank welcomes checking accounts in any amount, pays 2 per cent interest thereon, and makes a practice of extending uniformly prompt attention to all patrons.

CAPITAL & SURPLUS $2,300,000.00

UNION TRUST CO.

SOUTHWEST CORNER 15TH AND H STREETS
Edward J. St. Lawrence, President

OCEAN STEAMSHIPS.

SUMMER RATES

NOW IN EFFECT
VACATION CRUISES
— TO THE —

PANAMA CANAL
and WEST INDIES
CUBA, JAMAICA, COSTA RICA, COLOMBIA
by Popular "PRINZ" Steamers of our ATLAS SERVICE
— NEXT SAILING —

PRINZ EITEL FRIEDRICH, June 13, 2 P. M.
11 to 18 DAYS $75
25 DAY CRUISES $115 up
PANAMA CANAL (ROUND) $110

Write for information.
HAMBURG-AMERICAN LINE

41-45 Broadway, New York, or E. F. Droop & Sons
Co., 12th and G Sts. N. W., G. W. Moss, 517
14th St., Washington, D. C.

R. T. CATOR, CARPENTER AND BUILDER

Successor to J. W. HOBBS.
Building and Repairing in All Branches. 1215 Eye St. N. W., Washington, D. C.

USE THIS BLANK

Fill out and mail to the office of The Washington Herald, 1322 New York avenue northwest, Washington, D. C.

Washington, D. C. 1914.
To The Washington Herald:
Please have carrier deliver The Washington Herald, Daily and Sunday, or Daily only, to my address, as follows:

Name

Address

Daily and Sunday, 45c per month. Daily only, 25c per month.

G. W. U. CONFERS
DEGREES TONIGHT

Superintendent of Schools
Thurston to Deliver the Chief Address.

PRIZES TO BE AWARDED

Deans of Various Departments Will Present Graduating Classes at Final Exercises.

The ninety-third annual commencement of the George Washington University will be held at 8 o'clock this evening in Memorial Continental Hall.

The principal address will be delivered by Ernest Lawson Thurston, superintendent of public schools, upon whom the honorary degree of Master of Arts will be conferred by the university. Mr. Thurston is a graduate of George Washington University, having received the civil engineering degree in 1903. From 1903 until 1907 he was connected with the university as a member of the faculty of the School of Engineering.

Stockton to Speak.

The address to the graduating classes will be delivered by Rear Admiral Charles Herbert Stockton, president of the university. Music will be by the Marine Band, the program being as follows: Overture, "William Tell" (Rossini); excerpts, "Sartre" (Helmman); national anthem, "The Star Spangled Banner"; "The Star Spangled Banner" (Schumann); march, "The Star Spangled Banner" (Sisau); and march, "Admiral Dewey" (Santelmann).

The commencement procession will enter the hall at 8 o'clock, and the opening prayer will be offered by Rev. Dr. Joseph Johnston Murr. Miss Genevieve Margaret Frizzell, of the Teachers' College, will deliver an oration on "The Power of Personality," and Walter Elbert Barton, of the Law School, will speak on "The Influence of the Lawyer for Good."

The honorary degree of doctor of letters will be conferred on Percival Hall. Roy John Hardstaff will be senior marshal of the evening, with Herbert Paul Middleton and Francis Hue Karl Reynolds as assistants. William H. Santelmann, director of the Marine Band, will be in charge of the musical program.

Deans Will Present Classes.

The various graduating classes will be presented by the following: Dean Wilbur, Columbian College; Dean Hodgkins, College of Engineering; Dean Ruediger, Teachers College; Dean Gregory, Law School; Dean Borden, Medical School; Dean Walton, dental school; Dean Kalowski, National College of Pharmacy; Dean Buckingham, College of Veterinary Medicine; and Dean Munroe, School of Graduate Studies.

Prizes will be awarded to the following:

Arts and Sciences—Margaret Marian Browne, Edith Cheney, Genevieve Margaret Frizzell, Margaret Povey Wilson, Elizabeth Ferguson, Lillian Evans Carpenter, Mathilde Elker, May M. Butler, Harry G. Beneman, Esther Elizabeth Galbraith, and Margaret Povey Wilson.

Law School—James Francis Pierce, Merrill Edward Clark, and Frank Albert Bower.

Medical School—Roy John Hardstaff, Andrew Martin Jova, and Tannoyne Philip Ray.

Dental School—Samuel Danemann and Memorn Guilhempe.

National College of Pharmacy—Earl Richardson Hall and Morris G. Goldstein.

College of Veterinary Medicine—Harry Rohrer Getz and Irving Magruder Cahill.

Intercollegiate Debating—Philip David Bookstaber, John St. Clair Brooks, Herbert Watson Cornell, Shirley Penrose Jones, David Bryan Morehouse, Randolph Codman Shaw and John Fraser Webster.

High School Scholarship Awards in Department of Arts and Sciences—Dorothy G. Sornborger, Central High School; Wallace M. Yater, Eastern High School; Emma Reed, Eastern High School; Dorothy Francis, Central High School; Mildred Padgett, Central High School; Maurice Herzmark, Central High School; Aubrey Eugene Hummer, McKinley Manual Training School; Esther Kahn, Central High School.

The Graduate Classes.

The list of graduates follows:

Doctor of Philosophy—Philander Betts.

Doctor of Science—Gertrude Mary Adams, New York; Ella Clayton Buckley, Daisy Edna Case, Ruby May Garthright, Sophia Sidney Pearson, Virginia Nannie May Pike, Carolyn, Elizabeth Key Quisenberry, Mary Bennett Quisenberry, Catherine Mota Swart, and Wilhelmina Triplett, Virginia.

Doctor of Arts—John Joseph Ira Dow Beebe, Connecticut; Camille Robespierre Bon Seigneux, France; Donald Callar, Pennsylvania; Samuel Danemann, Russia; Grville New, Kansas; Nobuaki Samuel Benjamin Ginsberg, District of Columbia; Edward Earl Golden, Wyoming; Memorn Guilhempe, France; Walter Lowell Haasen, New York; Sterling Vernon Mead, Kansas; Benjamin Frank Prendergast, District of Columbia; Jasper Newton Roberts, Tennessee; and Harry Ernest Georgia.

Doctor of pharmacy—John Gregory Blakes, District of Columbia; Beulah Lanette Blackstock, California; Vincent Louis Burgher, District of Columbia; Timothy Carroll, District of Columbia; Walter Joseph Andrew Donohoe, New York; Frederick Edwin Dudley, Jr., District of Columbia; Earl Richardson Hall, Iowa; Edward Flavell Koss, District of Columbia; John Allen Murphy, Pennsylvania; William Andrew Stephens, Kentucky; Jacob Wilman, Russia.

Doctor of medicine—Irving Magruder Cahill, Maryland; Joseph P. Chamberlain, District of Columbia; Judson Kerfoot, Chapin, Virginia; Joseph Harmon Colclough, Pennsylvania; Oliver Mearle Cook, Ohio; Norman C. Craig, Pennsylvania; Arthur Burdick Crawford, New York; John James Essex, Maryland; Samuel Deane Forbes, Virginia; Harry Rohrer Getz, Pennsylvania; Frederick Aloysius Grenfell, District of Columbia; Jesse Hayes, New Jersey; Raymond Alexander Kelle, District of Columbia; Howard Sydney Miller, Virginia; Francis Hue Karl Reynolds, Disconain; Jacob Edward Shillinger, Maryland; William Stark Triplett, Clifford Caswell Whitney, Massachusetts.

Doctor of law—John Joseph Ira Dow Beebe, Connecticut; Camille Robespierre Bon Seigneux, France; Donald Callar, Pennsylvania; Samuel Danemann, Russia; Grville New, Kansas; Nobuaki Samuel Benjamin Ginsberg, District of Columbia; Edward Earl Golden, Wyoming; Memorn Guilhempe, France; Walter Lowell Haasen, New York; Sterling Vernon Mead, Kansas; Benjamin Frank Prendergast, District of Columbia; Jasper Newton Roberts, Tennessee; and Harry Ernest Georgia.

Doctor of science—Gertrude Mary Adams, New York; Ella Clayton Buckley, Daisy Edna Case, Ruby May Garthright, Sophia Sidney Pearson, Virginia Nannie May Pike, Carolyn, Elizabeth Key Quisenberry, Mary Bennett Quisenberry, Catherine Mota Swart, and Wilhelmina Triplett, Virginia.

Doctor of arts—John Joseph Ira Dow Beebe, Connecticut; Camille Robespierre Bon Seigneux, France; Donald Callar, Pennsylvania; Samuel Danemann, Russia; Grville New, Kansas; Nobuaki Samuel Benjamin Ginsberg, District of Columbia; Edward Earl Golden, Wyoming; Memorn Guilhempe, France; Walter Lowell Haasen, New York; Sterling Vernon Mead, Kansas; Benjamin Frank Prendergast, District of Columbia; Jasper Newton Roberts, Tennessee; and Harry Ernest Georgia.

Doctor of pharmacy—John Gregory Blakes, District of Columbia; Beulah Lanette Blackstock, California; Vincent Louis Burgher, District of Columbia; Timothy Carroll, District of Columbia; Walter Joseph Andrew Donohoe, New York; Frederick Edwin Dudley, Jr., District of Columbia; Earl Richardson Hall, Iowa; Edward Flavell Koss, District of Columbia; John Allen Murphy, Pennsylvania; William Andrew Stephens, Kentucky; Jacob Wilman, Russia.

Doctor of medicine—Irving Magruder Cahill, Maryland; Joseph P. Chamberlain, District of Columbia; Judson Kerfoot, Chapin, Virginia; Joseph Harmon Colclough, Pennsylvania; Oliver Mearle Cook, Ohio; Norman C. Craig, Pennsylvania; Arthur Burdick Crawford, New York; John James Essex, Maryland; Samuel Deane Forbes, Virginia; Harry Rohrer Getz, Pennsylvania; Frederick Aloysius Grenfell, District of Columbia; Jesse Hayes, New Jersey; Raymond Alexander Kelle, District of Columbia; Howard Sydney Miller, Virginia; Francis Hue Karl Reynolds, Disconain; Jacob Edward Shillinger, Maryland; William Stark Triplett, Clifford Caswell Whitney, Massachusetts.

Doctor of law—John Joseph Ira Dow Beebe, Connecticut; Camille Robespierre Bon Seigneux, France; Donald Callar, Pennsylvania; Samuel Danemann, Russia; Grville New, Kansas; Nobuaki Samuel Benjamin Ginsberg, District of Columbia; Edward Earl Golden, Wyoming; Memorn Guilhempe, France; Walter Lowell Haasen, New York; Sterling Vernon Mead, Kansas; Benjamin Frank Prendergast, District of Columbia; Jasper Newton Roberts, Tennessee; and Harry Ernest Georgia.

Doctor of science—Gertrude Mary Adams, New York; Ella Clayton Buckley, Daisy Edna Case, Ruby May Garthright, Sophia Sidney Pearson, Virginia Nannie May Pike, Carolyn, Elizabeth Key Quisenberry, Mary Bennett Quisenberry, Catherine Mota Swart, and Wilhelmina Triplett, Virginia.

Doctor of arts—John Joseph Ira Dow Beebe, Connecticut; Camille Robespierre Bon Seigneux, France; Donald Callar, Pennsylvania; Samuel Danemann, Russia; Grville New, Kansas; Nobuaki Samuel Benjamin Ginsberg, District of Columbia; Edward Earl Golden, Wyoming; Memorn Guilhempe, France; Walter Lowell Haasen, New York; Sterling Vernon Mead, Kansas; Benjamin Frank Prendergast, District of Columbia; Jasper Newton Roberts, Tennessee; and Harry Ernest Georgia.

Doctor of pharmacy—John Gregory Blakes, District of Columbia; Beulah Lanette Blackstock, California; Vincent Louis Burgher, District of Columbia; Timothy Carroll, District of Columbia; Walter Joseph Andrew Donohoe, New York; Frederick Edwin Dudley, Jr., District of Columbia; Earl Richardson Hall, Iowa; Edward Flavell Koss, District of Columbia; John Allen Murphy, Pennsylvania; William Andrew Stephens, Kentucky; Jacob Wilman, Russia.

Doctor of medicine—Irving Magruder Cahill, Maryland; Joseph P. Chamberlain, District of Columbia; Judson Kerfoot, Chapin, Virginia; Joseph Harmon Colclough, Pennsylvania; Oliver Mearle Cook, Ohio; Norman C. Craig, Pennsylvania; Arthur Burdick Crawford, New York; John James Essex, Maryland; Samuel Deane Forbes, Virginia; Harry Rohrer Getz, Pennsylvania; Frederick Aloysius Grenfell, District of Columbia; Jesse Hayes, New Jersey; Raymond Alexander Kelle, District of Columbia; Howard Sydney Miller, Virginia; Francis Hue Karl Reynolds, Disconain; Jacob Edward Shillinger, Maryland; William Stark Triplett, Clifford Caswell Whitney, Massachusetts.

Doctor of law—John Joseph Ira Dow Beebe, Connecticut; Camille Robespierre Bon Seigneux, France; Donald Callar, Pennsylvania; Samuel Danemann, Russia; Grville New, Kansas; Nobuaki Samuel Benjamin Ginsberg, District of Columbia; Edward Earl Golden, Wyoming; Memorn Guilhempe, France; Walter Lowell Haasen, New York; Sterling Vernon Mead, Kansas; Benjamin Frank Prendergast, District of Columbia; Jasper Newton Roberts, Tennessee; and Harry Ernest Georgia.

Doctor of science—Gertrude Mary Adams, New York; Ella Clayton Buckley, Daisy Edna Case, Ruby May Garthright, Sophia Sidney Pearson, Virginia Nannie May Pike, Carolyn, Elizabeth Key Quisenberry, Mary Bennett Quisenberry, Catherine Mota Swart, and Wilhelmina Triplett, Virginia.

Doctor of arts—John Joseph Ira Dow Beebe, Connecticut; Camille Robespierre Bon Seigneux, France; Donald Callar, Pennsylvania; Samuel Danemann, Russia; Grville New, Kansas; Nobuaki Samuel Benjamin Ginsberg, District of Columbia; Edward Earl Golden, Wyoming; Memorn Guilhempe, France; Walter Lowell Haasen, New York; Sterling Vernon Mead, Kansas; Benjamin Frank Prendergast, District of Columbia; Jasper Newton Roberts, Tennessee; and Harry Ernest Georgia.

Doctor of pharmacy—John Gregory Blakes, District of Columbia; Beulah Lanette Blackstock, California; Vincent Louis Burgher, District of Columbia; Timothy Carroll, District of Columbia; Walter Joseph Andrew Donohoe, New York; Frederick Edwin Dudley, Jr., District of Columbia; Earl Richardson Hall, Iowa; Edward Flavell Koss, District of Columbia; John Allen Murphy, Pennsylvania; William Andrew Stephens, Kentucky; Jacob Wilman, Russia.

Doctor of medicine—Irving Magruder Cahill, Maryland; Joseph P. Chamberlain, District of Columbia; Judson Kerfoot, Chapin, Virginia; Joseph Harmon Colclough, Pennsylvania; Oliver Mearle Cook, Ohio; Norman C. Craig, Pennsylvania; Arthur Burdick Crawford, New York; John James Essex, Maryland; Samuel Deane Forbes, Virginia; Harry Rohrer Getz, Pennsylvania; Frederick Aloysius Grenfell, District of Columbia; Jesse Hayes, New Jersey; Raymond Alexander Kelle, District of Columbia; Howard Sydney Miller, Virginia; Francis Hue Karl Reynolds, Disconain; Jacob Edward Shillinger, Maryland; William Stark Triplett, Clifford Caswell Whitney, Massachusetts.

Doctor of law—John Joseph Ira Dow Beebe, Connecticut; Camille Robespierre Bon Seigneux, France; Donald Callar, Pennsylvania; Samuel Danemann, Russia; Grville New, Kansas; Nobuaki Samuel Benjamin Ginsberg, District of Columbia; Edward Earl Golden, Wyoming; Memorn Guilhempe, France; Walter Lowell Haasen, New York; Sterling Vernon Mead, Kansas; Benjamin Frank Prendergast, District of Columbia; Jasper Newton Roberts, Tennessee; and Harry Ernest Georgia.

Doctor of science—Gertrude Mary Adams, New York; Ella Clayton Buckley, Daisy Edna Case, Ruby May Garthright, Sophia Sidney Pearson, Virginia Nannie May Pike, Carolyn, Elizabeth Key Quisenberry, Mary Bennett Quisenberry, Catherine Mota Swart, and Wilhelmina Triplett, Virginia.

Doctor of arts—John Joseph Ira Dow Beebe, Connecticut; Camille Robespierre Bon Seigneux, France; Donald Callar, Pennsylvania; Samuel Danemann, Russia; Grville New, Kansas; Nobuaki Samuel Benjamin Ginsberg, District of Columbia; Edward Earl Golden, Wyoming; Memorn Guilhempe, France; Walter Lowell Haasen, New York; Sterling Vernon Mead, Kansas; Benjamin Frank Prendergast, District of Columbia; Jasper Newton Roberts, Tennessee; and Harry Ernest Georgia.

Doctor of pharmacy—John Gregory Blakes, District of Columbia; Beulah Lanette Blackstock, California; Vincent Louis Burgher, District of Columbia; Timothy Carroll, District of Columbia; Walter Joseph Andrew Donohoe, New York; Frederick Edwin Dudley, Jr., District of Columbia; Earl Richardson Hall, Iowa; Edward Flavell Koss, District of Columbia; John Allen Murphy, Pennsylvania; William Andrew Stephens, Kentucky; Jacob Wilman, Russia.

Doctor of medicine—Irving Magruder Cahill, Maryland; Joseph P. Chamberlain, District of Columbia; Judson Kerfoot, Chapin, Virginia; Joseph Harmon Colclough, Pennsylvania; Oliver Mearle Cook, Ohio; Norman C. Craig, Pennsylvania; Arthur Burdick Crawford, New York; John James Essex, Maryland; Samuel Deane Forbes, Virginia; Harry Rohrer Getz, Pennsylvania; Frederick Aloysius Grenfell, District of Columbia; Jesse Hayes, New Jersey; Raymond Alexander Kelle, District of Columbia; Howard Sydney Miller, Virginia; Francis Hue Karl Reynolds, Disconain; Jacob Edward Shillinger, Maryland; William Stark Triplett, Clifford Caswell Whitney, Massachusetts.

Doctor of law—John Joseph Ira Dow Beebe, Connecticut; Camille Robespierre Bon Seigneux, France; Donald Callar, Pennsylvania; Samuel Danemann, Russia; Grville New, Kansas; Nobuaki Samuel Benjamin Ginsberg, District of Columbia; Edward Earl Golden, Wyoming; Memorn Guilhempe, France; Walter Lowell Haasen, New York; Sterling Vernon Mead, Kansas; Benjamin Frank Prendergast, District of Columbia; Jasper Newton Roberts, Tennessee; and Harry Ernest Georgia.

Doctor of science—Gertrude Mary Adams, New York; Ella Clayton Buckley, Daisy Edna Case, Ruby May Garthright, Sophia Sidney Pearson, Virginia Nannie May Pike, Carolyn, Elizabeth Key Quisenberry, Mary Bennett Quisenberry, Catherine Mota Swart, and Wilhelmina Triplett, Virginia.

Doctor of arts—John Joseph Ira Dow Beebe, Connecticut; Camille Robespierre Bon Seigneux, France; Donald Callar, Pennsylvania; Samuel Danemann, Russia; Grville New, Kansas; Nobuaki Samuel Benjamin Ginsberg, District of Columbia; Edward Earl Golden, Wyoming; Memorn Guilhempe, France; Walter Lowell Haasen, New York; Sterling Vernon Mead, Kansas; Benjamin Frank Prendergast, District of Columbia; Jasper Newton Roberts, Tennessee; and Harry Ernest Georgia.

Doctor of pharmacy—John Gregory Blakes, District of Columbia; Beulah Lanette Blackstock, California; Vincent Louis Burgher, District of Columbia; Timothy Carroll, District of Columbia; Walter Joseph Andrew Donohoe, New York; Frederick Edwin Dudley, Jr., District of Columbia; Earl Richardson Hall, Iowa; Edward Flavell Koss, District of Columbia; John Allen Murphy, Pennsylvania; William Andrew Stephens, Kentucky; Jacob Wilman, Russia.

Doctor of medicine—Irving Magruder Cahill, Maryland; Joseph P. Chamberlain, District of Columbia; Judson Kerfoot, Chapin, Virginia; Joseph Harmon Colclough, Pennsylvania; Oliver Mearle Cook, Ohio; Norman C. Craig, Pennsylvania; Arthur Burdick Crawford, New York; John James Essex, Maryland; Samuel Deane Forbes, Virginia; Harry Rohrer Getz, Pennsylvania; Frederick Aloysius Grenfell, District of Columbia; Jesse Hayes, New Jersey; Raymond Alexander Kelle, District of Columbia; Howard Sydney Miller, Virginia; Francis Hue Karl Reynolds, Disconain; Jacob Edward Shillinger, Maryland; William Stark Triplett, Clifford Caswell Whitney, Massachusetts.

Doctor of law—John Joseph Ira Dow Beebe, Connecticut; Camille Robespierre Bon Seigneux, France; Donald Callar, Pennsylvania; Samuel Danemann, Russia; Grville New, Kansas; Nobuaki Samuel Benjamin Ginsberg, District of Columbia; Edward Earl Golden, Wyoming; Memorn Guilhempe, France; Walter Lowell Haasen, New York; Sterling Vernon Mead, Kansas; Benjamin Frank Prendergast, District of Columbia; Jasper Newton Roberts, Tennessee; and Harry Ernest Georgia.

WALL STREET IS "SORE"

High Finance of New York
Becoming More and More
Disgruntled.

G. O. P. GATHERS FORCES

Republicans of Empire State Getting
Ready for Lively Congressional Campaign.

New York, June 9.—While the average man of Wall Street and the powerful financial figures who meet in Gotham town do not know much about politics, they are wonderfully frequent with the interrogation mark when some one of eminence comes from Washington.

Of late there is unusual implication in the interrogations and an implication which ought to give the administration considerable trouble pending the Congressional campaign, not to mention 1916.

The questioning indicates no personal animosity, but a feeling of being considered high-minded and sincere with an honest desire to do the right thing, except that he must be the judge of what is right from both a personal and party standpoint.

Sentiment Adverse.

There is no concealing the adverse sentiment towards the administration among the high masters of finance and possibly the Democratic retort is that they are agitated lest the temper of things are run their way, both by executive legislation and judicial departments at Washington.

Even neither political party can afford to overlook the value of moral and actual support from New York and especially from the business element.

No one knows the present temper of business voters in Manhattan better than the present members of Congress from the metropolis and Brooklyn, and they are agitated lest the temper will leave a good many of them at home after November.

Possibly the administration might facetiously retort that too many of the New York City voters spend much more time at home than in attending to public duties at Washington; hence, are more aptly qualified to tell of a resentment against administration methods than "statesmen from other States and a few from Gotham who really take part in Congressional affairs."

"Psychological" Arguments.

Even to those who remain in New York much of the time are solicited about Republicanism, and the temper of continuing powerful in the party organization. No one can question their intimate knowledge of what is going on in the Federal government, which is not cordial to the psychological arguments put forth at the Washington end. The political contingent including Congressmen is inclined to admit some of the administration's blunders, but demand that the blame must not be put upon the legislative department, also that after all things may turn out better.

Meantime the minority members of the State delegation feel of business men to do the usual thing as in other years following the election of a Republican.

Confidence.

Already the up-State districts, apart from those already represented by Republicans, have indicated confidence in the Federal government, and the Democrats who came in with the break-up of 1910 and 1912, while here in New York, especially in the up-State residence districts, there is promise of sending back several Republicans who failed to connect in the years mentioned.

Confidence in such a result has increased remarkably in the last month, and activity has been accordingly both among candidates and party managers.

Some cautious Republican leaders down Washington way suggested recently that perhaps it might be political wisdom to not quite elect a Republican House, but let the Democrats do their worst until when the time comes, but a Republican return to power would be overwhelming.

A later view of things has dissipated the idea and the suggestion is now for a general stirring up of things in every district that can possibly be carried.

Will Provide Funds.

New York City and State will do much towards the party, and a list of all, will do it without asking aid from the Congressional committee. The financial magnates will look after that essential feature of the campaign, never fear, with a possible surplus to contribute hand over to that alert organization in the Riggs Building headed by Woods and Everman.

The Hon. Clarence Wayland Watson, who spent twenty-seven months in the United States Senate from West Virginia and the gave the Democratic organization of that State the most splendid stiffening up it has known in years, has a big business office in New York and looks in occasionally at the Waldorf. The magnitude of his coal operations in several States requires much of his time at this end, but he has never lost touch with home affairs, political or business. His real home is at Fairmont and his estate there is one of the show places of all West Virginia.

Active and Loyal.

While the present trend of things in the State is not very encouraging to the Watson Senatorial ambition it is the more to his credit that he continues as active and loyal.

There is a striking coincidence in the careers of Watson and Camden, both coming to the Senate through the death of Senators whose terms lacked two years of expiration. Both are Democrats and have sat together in national conventions. Both are millionaires, with big holdings in coal corporations. Their fathers were both pioneers in the wonderful coal development of West Virginia, and it might be added that both Watson and Camden are noted as breeders of thoroughbred horses.

No one will regret more than Senator Camden, possibly excepting Watson himself, that the West Virginia magnate is not to be a colleague in the Senate. They would have seats near each other, and it would be a matter of remark by West Virginia and Kentucky visitors that the two statesmen represented members of capital, let alone a quietly developed political sagacity, unusual in American politics.

"Glad to See You."

However, Watson will rejoice to see Camden Senator, and with Watson yet very much under fifty he may suppose his short term with a full one long before he is as old as the majority of statesmen now on the Senate roll call.

Senator Camden is well known in New York, both in financial circles and in the up-town gatherings of both politicians and business men at night. His friends of the Waldorf circle are awaiting his arrival with promise of cordial congratulations, and he is sure of finding many old friends, both from Kentucky and West Virginia. His native State, where he retains big holdings.

High Finance of New York
Becoming More and More
Disgruntled.

G. O. P. GATHERS FORCES

Republicans of Empire State Getting
Ready for Lively Congressional Campaign.

New York, June 9.—While the average man of Wall Street and the powerful financial figures who meet in Gotham town do not know much about politics, they are wonderfully frequent with the interrogation mark when some one of eminence comes from Washington.

Of late there is unusual implication in the interrogations and an implication which ought to give the administration considerable trouble pending the Congressional campaign, not to mention 1916.

The questioning indicates no personal animosity, but a feeling of being considered high-minded and sincere with an honest desire to do the right thing, except that he must be the judge of what is right from both a personal and party standpoint.

Sentiment Adverse.

There is no concealing the adverse sentiment towards the administration among the high masters of finance and possibly the Democratic retort is that they are agitated lest the temper of things are run their way, both by executive legislation and judicial departments at Washington.

Even neither political party can afford to overlook the value of moral and actual support from New York and especially from the business element.

No one knows the present temper of business voters in Manhattan better than the present members of Congress from the metropolis and Brooklyn, and they are agitated lest the temper will leave a good many of them at home after November.

Possibly the administration might facetiously retort that too many of the New York City voters spend much more time at home than in attending to public duties at Washington; hence, are more aptly qualified to tell of a resentment against administration methods than "statesmen from other States and a few from Gotham who really take part in Congressional affairs."

"Psychological" Arguments.

Even to those who remain in New York much of the time are solicited about Republicanism, and the temper of continuing powerful in the party organization. No one can question their intimate knowledge of what is going on in the Federal government, which is not cordial to the psychological arguments put forth at the Washington end. The political contingent including Congressmen is inclined to admit some of the administration's blunders, but demand that the blame must not be put upon the legislative department, also that after all things may turn out better.

Meantime the minority members of the State delegation feel of business men to do the usual thing as in other years following the election of a Republican.

Confidence.

Already the up-State districts, apart from those already represented by Republicans, have indicated confidence in the Federal government, and the Democrats who came in with the break-up of 1910 and 1912, while here in New York, especially in the up-State residence districts, there is promise of sending back several Republicans who failed to connect in the years mentioned.

Confidence in such a result has increased remarkably in the last month, and activity has been accordingly both among candidates and party managers.

Some cautious Republican leaders down Washington way suggested recently that perhaps it might be political wisdom to not quite elect a Republican House, but let the Democrats do their worst until when the time comes, but a Republican return to power would be overwhelming.

A later view of things has dissipated the idea and the suggestion is now for a general stirring up of things in every district that can possibly be carried.

Will Provide Funds.

New York City and State will do much towards the party, and a list of all, will do it without asking aid from the Congressional committee. The financial magnates will look after that essential feature of the campaign, never fear, with a possible surplus to contribute hand over to that alert organization in the Riggs Building headed by Woods and Everman.

The Hon. Clarence Wayland Watson, who spent twenty-seven months in the United States Senate from West Virginia and the gave the Democratic organization of that State the most splendid stiffening up it has known in years, has a big business office in New York and looks in occasionally at the Waldorf. The magnitude of his coal operations in several States requires much of his time at this end, but he has never lost touch with home affairs, political or business. His real home is at Fairmont and his estate there is one of the show places of all West Virginia.

Active and Loyal.

While the present trend of things in the State is not very encouraging to the Watson Senatorial ambition it is the more to his credit that he continues as active and loyal.

There is a striking coincidence in the careers of Watson and Camden, both coming to the Senate through the death of Senators whose terms lacked two years of expiration. Both are Democrats and have sat together in national conventions. Both are millionaires, with big holdings in coal corporations. Their fathers were both pioneers in the wonderful coal development of West Virginia, and it might be added that both Watson and Camden are noted as breeders of thoroughbred horses.

No one will regret more than Senator Camden, possibly excepting Watson himself, that the West Virginia magnate is not to be a colleague in the Senate. They would have seats near each other, and it would be a matter of remark by West Virginia and Kentucky visitors that the two statesmen represented members of capital, let alone a quietly developed political sagacity, unusual in American politics.

"Glad to See You."

However, Watson will rejoice to see Camden Senator, and with Watson yet very much under fifty he may suppose his short term with a full one long before he is as old as the majority of statesmen now on the Senate roll call.

Senator Camden is well known in New York, both in financial circles and in the up-town gatherings of both politicians and business men at night. His friends of the Waldorf circle are awaiting his arrival with promise of cordial congratulations, and he is sure of finding many old friends, both from Kentucky and West Virginia. His native State, where he retains big holdings.

There is a striking coincidence in the careers of Watson and Camden, both coming to the Senate through the death of Senators whose terms lacked two years of expiration. Both are Democrats and have sat together in national conventions. Both are millionaires, with big holdings in coal corporations. Their fathers were both pioneers in the wonderful coal development of West Virginia, and it might be added that both Watson and Camden are noted as breeders of thoroughbred horses.

No one will regret more than Senator Camden, possibly excepting Watson himself, that the West Virginia magnate is not to be a colleague in the Senate. They would have seats near each other, and it would be a matter of remark by West Virginia and Kentucky visitors that the two statesmen represented members of capital, let alone a quietly developed political sagacity, unusual in American politics.

"Glad to See You."

However, Watson will rejoice to see Camden Senator, and with Watson yet very much under fifty he may suppose his short term with a full one long before he is as old as the majority of statesmen now on the Senate roll call.

Senator Camden is well known in New York, both in financial circles and in the up-town gatherings of both politicians and business men at night. His friends of the Waldorf circle are awaiting his arrival with promise of cordial congratulations, and he is sure of finding many old friends, both from Kentucky and West Virginia. His native State, where he retains big holdings.

There is a striking coincidence in the careers of Watson and Camden, both coming to the Senate through the death of Senators whose terms lacked two years of expiration. Both are Democrats and have sat together in national conventions. Both are millionaires, with big holdings in coal corporations. Their fathers were both pioneers in the wonderful coal development of West Virginia, and it might be added that both Watson and Camden are noted as breeders of thoroughbred horses.

No one will regret more than Senator Camden, possibly excepting Watson himself, that the West Virginia magnate is not to be a colleague in the Senate. They would have seats near each other, and it would be a